Bankers should complete target of self-employment schemes: CM

STAFF REPORTER ■ BHOPAL

Chief Minister Shivraj Singh Chouhan has said that the bankers should complete the target of self-employment schemes within the time-limit. Work responsibly in the implementation of self-employment schemes of the Government of India.

Chouhan was addressing the meeting of State Level Bankers Committee at Mantralaya today. Finance Minister Jagdish Deora, Chief Secretary Iqbal Singh Bains, Principal Secretary Finance Manoj Govil and other senior officers and bankers were present.

Chouhan instructed the officers regarding the implementation of Mukhyamantri Udyam Kranti Yojana and bringing better results. The Chief Minister said that employment is the biggest priority. Specially the self-employment schemes should be implemented on priority. Let economic activities go fast. For self-employment, ensure to organize loan camps in the presence of public representatives in a systematic manner.

The Chief Minister said that a state-level self-employment fair should be organised on the birth anniversary of Swami Vivekananda on January 12. He said that loans should be sanctioned in maximum cases in the fair. Camps should also be organised at district level. He said that from November 9 to November 26, 117 credit camps were organised and Mudra loans worth Rs.51 crores were sanctioned.

No greater virtue than sharing happiness

STAFF REPORTER ■ BHOPAL

Chief Minister Shivraj Singh Chouhan has said that this programme of sharing happiness is a wonderful initiative. Welcoming the children, Chief Minister Chouhan said that children are like little flowers and they should always keep smiling, always be happy. May there be a gleam of hope and faith in the eyes of the children. Move ahead happily to fulfill the dreams of a golden future.

There is no greater virtue than sharing happiness in the world. Chief Minister Chouhan was addressing the children who had come to the residence premises in the Nanhi Khushiyan Caravan programme.

In the programme, children of economically weaker families will be taken to the tourist places of Bhopal in a luxury bus. Along with this, food will also be provided to the children in a reputed hotel. This initiative has been taken by Navdunia Newspaper Group. Chouhan flagged off the children's bus. Chief Minister Chouhan said that this organisation is implementing the message of 'Pyaar Bantte Chalo' (keep sharing the love). Our goal is that every person's life is spent happily and life is purposeful. These are the children who will take care of India and Madhya Pradesh tomorrow. Prime Minister Narendra Modi is a great source of inspiration for all of us including children. He spent his childhood in struggling circumstances. His life tells that if we set a goal, try with determination, then we can reach any position. Children should not inculcate in themselves the feeling that they are not financially well off.Chief Minister Chouhan wished and blessed the children for a bright future. The Chief Minister said that the State Government is trying to share happiness and joy on behalf of the Anand Department.
