Hindi – Tool of progress in India

- Development of the country lies in the Indian language

Mumbai, 10th January 2019: Bank of Baroda, one of the country's largest public sector banks, organized a seminar on 'Economic development and Indian languages'. Eminent media personality, Mr. Rahul Dev was welcomed by senior officials from Bank of Baroda - Mr. O K Kaul, General Manager, Marketing and Mr. Sanjay Kumar, General Manager Compliance.

At the onset of the event, Dr. Jawahar Karnavat, General Manager - Official Language, Bank of Baroda, highlighted the importance of Hindi and other Indian languages in our day to day life.

In his speech addressing a large number of executives and staff members of the bank who attended the session, Mr. Dev said, "Actual integrated development of our country is possible only through Hindi and other Indian languages. To preserve the existence of our Indian languages it is utmost necessary to make it as a tool of progress".
