CURRENT ACCOUNT RULES

- Whenever the customer does not use alternate channels for opening the Current Account, payments to credit of an account with the Bank should ordinarily be accompanied by a pay-in slip duly signed by the constituent. Slips with counterfoils will be supplied in book form and the entry of the transactions made in the counterfoil will be authenticated by the initials of an authorised employee of the Bank. The depositor should satisfy himself that the transaction is so certified.
- Cheques must be drawn on the Bank's printed forms. The Bank reserves its right to refuse payment of any cheque drawn otherwise. The bank reserves the right to refuse payment of cheques that have been altered in any way unless the alternation is authenticated by the drawer under full signature. Cheques should be drawn in such a way as to prevent alteration after issue, and the signature should be uniform with that on record at the Bank.
